pamphlets, fact sheets and oral information.

We do visit travel wholesalers, tour operators and travel agents to personally deliver information and brochures and to motivate them to create and program tours to Colombia to be sold to the general public.

We conduct a Public Relations program in the interest of our foreign Principal, in the form of press releases and also by inviting to Colombia travel writers, travel editors and media representative so that they can feature articles about the country in the U.S. Media.

We participate in travel trade shows, specially in the one of the American Society of Travel Agents where we have a booth in order to contact the travel agents member of that Society with the purpose of interesting them in selling Colombia as a tourist destination.

15 (a) - To complement the disbursements of moneys for entertainment being made by our Director Mr. Luis Toro, these have been made to persons fitting into the bona-fide category of Travel Agents, Travel Wholesalers, Tour Operators, Travel Editors, Travel Writers, National Tourists Organizations Representatives, Representatives of International Hotel Chains.

15 (b) - DISBURSEMENTS - THINGS OF VALUE

Although we have reported under this item on previous reports that we invite Travel Writers, Travel Agents, Travel Wholesalers or Media Representatives to visit Colombia in order to familiarize them with the facilities existing there, so that they can program and sell trips or to induce them to write about our country, we did not conduct any of such trips during the period ending December 31, 1979.
